Please register online at ladyofthelake.org. Click on Fall Weekend, then Registration. You will receive an email response promptly and directions for sending your check. For those without internet access please fill out the form below.

Use one form if you are registering as a couple.

Name 1 _____M | F

Address _____

City/St/Zip _____

Phone _____

Email _____

I would like my name tag to read:

_____

Meals:
❍regular ❍meatless ❍dairy free ❍gluten free

Name 2 _____M | F

Address _____

City/St/Zip _____

Phone _____

Email _____

I would like my name tag to read:

_____

Meals:
❍regular ❍meatless ❍dairy-free ❍gluten-free

☐ Enclosed is US$195/person (before July 1)
☐ Enclosed is US$210/person (after July 1)

Total amount enclosed $ _____

Make check payable to Lady of the Lake Dance Camps and mail registration and check to :

Lady of the Lake
c/o Jerry LeClaire
P. O. Box 1002
Sandpoint, ID 83864

If you cancel before Sept 1, $40 will be retained. Sorry. No refund for cancellations after September 1.

Non Profit Org
U.S. Postage PAID
Spokane. WA
Permit # 4

Lady of the Lake
Dance Camps
2106 S Cherry Lane
Spokane, WA 99223

RETURN SERVICE REQUESTED

Lady of the Lake

Dance and Music Camps Present the

Fall Dance & Music Weekend

with

Lisa Greenleaf
Sam Keator

The Stringrays

Floating Crowbar

October 6-8, 2017
Lake Coeur d'Alene, Idaho

Lady of the Lake

Fall Dance and Music Weekend

Join old friends and new for a weekend-long contra, Irish, and square dance party with Lisa Greenleaf, Sam Keator, The Stringrays, and Spokane's own Floating Crowbar.

The 37th Lady of the Lake Fall Weekend includes morning, afternoon and evening contra dances, Irish and contra music and dance workshops, family-style meals and abundant snacks. Stay in heated cedar cabins or camp, explore 257 acres of protected pine and fir forest and nearly a mile of lakeshore at Camp N-Sid-Sen near Harrison, Idaho.

The Stringrays
Rodney Miller, fiddle, plus Max Newman, guitar, plus Stuart Kenney, bass and banjo, equal The Stringrays. Their sound is playful and sublime, raucous and tender, modern and old-school. These three players are exponents of traditional fiddle tunes old and new. They find constant inspiration in each other for lyrical improvising and interplay. Their music is fresh, surprising, nuanced, and made for dancing.

Lisa Greenleaf calls regularly in the Boston and New England areas and has been a staff member at dance camps and festivals throughout the country and Europe. Her specialties include traditional and contemporary contras, fun squares, challenging dances of all shapes and sizes, and callers' training. Lisa likes to emphasize community and communication in her workshops, guiding participants to get the most out of their dancing experience. Her sense of humor is infectious both on and off the dance floor, and she really loves being at dance camp!

Don Thomsen, James Hunter, Rick Rubin and Morgan Andersen are Floating Crowbar, Spokane's favorite traditional Irish band. With uillean pipes, flute, whistle, banjo and mandolin, as well as fiddle and guitar, Floating Crowbar plays a high-energy mix of Irish instrumental music and songs drawn from traditional and contemporary sources. Coming from a wide variety of backgrounds and musical interests, their passion for Irish music, good humor, mutual respect, and friendship make for inspired dancing and captivating concerts.

For sound, we are delighted to have Ken Glastre and Peter Holm.

Sam Keator teaches Irish dance of all kinds, leads ceilidhs, and organizes concerts and sessions in the Portland area. Twenty years ago, hoping to reduce stress, he decided to dance a jig. He found his way to an Irish dance in Portland and hasn't looked back. Endless dancing, serious study of Irish dance, and nine years as the president of the All-Ireland Cultural Society of Oregon followed. Sam is passionate about Irish dance, loves to teach, and loves contra dancers; he has a huge collection of jigs, reels, hornpipes, polkas, and some Ulster waltzes for our delectation this weekend.

Registration Opens May 1st

Early Bird Special: Register and mail your paper check by July 1 and pay $195.

After July 1 registration is $210.

Registrations accepted for full-time participants only on a first come, first served basis. Online registration is available and preferred, however, your paper check must still come by snail mail.

Detailed information about Camp N-Sid-Sen, accommodations, and workshops will be emailed to all registrants in early September. For more information, visit ladyofthelake.org, email us at fallweekend@ladyofthelake.org, or leave a message for Emily at 208-263-6751.